

press release

sale of C1

Monaco, 31st March 2008

YCO is pleased to announce the sale of C1, a stunning Ferretti 830 launched in 2005. Representing the latest in the design and technological evolution of this enormously successful Italian yard C1 offers excellent volume with a modern and elegant interior along with a spacious exterior. The many ex-factory modifications and ARG zero-speed stabilisation system make her a step above a standard production yacht.
