

press release

YCO crew opens in palma

Monaco, 29 may 2008

Following the collaboration with Deuxmil Marine PLC and the subsequent listing of YCO Deuxmil on the London Stock Exchange, YCO is pleased to announce the opening of the second YCO Crew office, in Palma, Mallorca. From 1st June 2008, YCO Crew will be able to provide recruitment services to Captains and Owners in another of the yachting industry's key locations. YCO Crew Palma will offer the same comprehensive service as the headquarters in Antibes, using the same state of the art online registration programming and extensive databases.

About YCO crew

YCO crew specialises in placing superior quality personnel from all over the world aboard the world's most prestigious yachts. An extensive online database and close relationships with the industry's brokerage, charter and management companies provides YCO crew with unparalleled access to new and forthcoming vacancies and a thorough understanding of the personnel required.

The YCO crew headquarters are based in the heart of the old town of Antibes, the yachting capital of the Mediterranean.

For more information on the services offered by YCO Crew in France and Spain, please contact General Manager Hatty Campbell on +33 (0) 4 92 90 92 90 or Hatty.C@ycocrew.com.
