two new CAs for YCO

Monaco, 7th July 2008

YCO are pleased to announce two new central agency listings. YCO have been appointed as Joint Central Agents for the spectacular motor yacht Silver. Launched in 2007, the 73m Silver provides an elegant combination of luxury and innovation. Her lightweight structure makes her incredibly fuel efficient whilst achieving an impressive cruising speed of 25 knots. Accommodating up to 18 guests and built to exacting SOLAS requirements, her interior is a striking blend of luxury and style. There are several spacious outdoor dining and lounging areas and onboard entertainments include a spa pool, beach club and theatre room.

YCO has also been appointed as the Central Agent for Pendragon, a 21m Riva Ego launched in late 2007, she has very few hours of use and is in immaculate condition. Capable of 38 knots she is the only Riva Ego to have been built to MCA compliance, making it very easy to register and operate the yacht commercially. Pendragon is on offer at €2,250,000 ex tax.
